Kingskerswell Parish Council

A statement from the Chairman:
As a council, good customer service is at the heart of everything we do and in return all we ask is our councillors are treated with dignity and respect. Sadly, this is not always the case especially on social media, this council stands together and does not tolerate any kinds of abuse.